

Norfolk Virginian

ESTABLISHED 1856.
PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING EXCEPT
MONDAY.
VIRGINIAN BUILDING.
MAIN AND COMMERCE STREETS.
M. GLENNAN, Owner.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE VIRGINIAN is LARGELY IN EXCESS of any other paper published in Eastern Virginia.
Its circulation in Norfolk and Portsmouth is greater than that of any paper published or circulated in the two cities.
It is delivered in the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth and suburbs for 10 cents a week. All subscriptions, postage paid.
Five Dollars per year; three Dollars for six months, one Dollar and Fifty Cents for three months, and Fifty Cents for one month.
Advertisements inserted at the rate of 75 Cents a Square Foot in the first column, subsequent insertion 37 Cents, or 50 Cents when inserted every other day. Contractors are not allowed to exceed their space or advertise other than their legitimate business, except by paying especially for the same.
THE WEEKLY VIRGINIAN AND CAROLINIAN, eight pages, is delivered, postage paid, three months, 25c; six months, 50c; twelve months, $1.

Entered as second-class matter.

PERSONS LEAVING THE CITY

During the summer can have THE NORFOLK VIRGINIAN mailed to them by ordering it at this office, either in person or by letter.

General Prosperity is conducting a mighty campaign in this country.
General Depression and his horde of calamity howlers are being pushed into the sea.

Maj. W. H. Chen, British ex Minister to Hawaii, who arrived in New York last week from Honolulu, says that the Hawaiian Government is "a despotic oligarchy, propped up by bayonets."

An estimate of the wheat crop of the world prepared by the Hungarian Government places the yield in the United States at 400,017,000 bushels, and that of Russia at 415,053,000 bushels.

The Treasury reports a considerable demand from the South and West for small bills, with which to move the crops. The result will be that before long an immense amount of money will be distributed among the farmers and farm laborers, and through the rail and water transportation lines.—Savannah News.

THE BUSINESS OF NORFOLK.

The Business Men's Association of this city has issued a very valuable pamphlet of the business statistics of Norfolk as compiled by Mr. Walter Sharp. It embraces an array of facts connected with the growth and development of Norfolk, that cannot fail to command interest and excite attention to Norfolk as the coming great city of the South Atlantic coast. It presents reasons for the Greater Norfolk, that are simply unanswerable, and which must impress every well wisher of Norfolk's prosperity. The pamphlet presents The VIRGINIAN's panoramic view of Norfolk, Portsmouth, Berkeley, Port Norfolk, West and South Norfolk, all bordering upon the Elizabeth river and its branches. The VIR-GINIAN hopes that the pamphlet will be distributed far and near.

QUAY'S GRIM FIGHT.

Senator Matthew Stanley Quay, of Pennsylvania, is making a grim fight for the retention of political power in that State. He is making a fight with every Republican leader in the Keystone State pitted against him. Much as the methods and actions of Senator Quay as a political boss are censured and condemned, the boldness of his battle and the fearlessness of his fight cannot but be admired, especially when one considers that his antagonists are creatures of his making, who have long received favors at his hands, and who are now using every effort to smite him to the ground.

The fight, which actively opens today at Harrisburg, will be watched with intense interest throughout the country. The honest voter and the lover of true Republicanism has no regard for the questionable politics of Quay. He has been a corrupter of men and a promoter of great evils. He has been a selfish and a relentless boss, and the country would be gratified to see him unhorsed by an honest, manly foe. But those engaged in fighting Quay are not honest and are not reputable. They are to a great extent political sneaks, and as such are viewed by the country at large. No good results can be secured whether one side or the other wins, unless it brings about the downfall of both. The battle will be watched with almost the same character of exciting interest that is created over a great pugilistic contest. The feeling between the two great factions is very bitter, and it is even predicted that blood will be shed before the fight is settled.

PROSPERITY AT THE SOUTH.

Speaking of the general prosperity of the Southern country, the Manufacturers' Record says that the South has raised this year the largest crop of corn in its history, and likewise the largest fruit and vegetable crop; its cotton crop promises a fair yield at good prices; its industrial interests, almost without exception, are busy and prosperous; its furnaces are pushed to meet the demand for iron at profitable figures; its coal mines are turning out a larger product than ever before; its textile industries are developing at an amazing rate. It says also that capital and population are tending southward from every direction. Such combination, it believes, has never existed before in the South's history. This glowing statement is confirmed from various sources, says the Pittsburg Post:

The vice president of the Seaboard Air Line which operates about 1,000 miles, from Norfolk to Atlanta, gives an equally cheering account of the outlook. "Last year," he says, "a great North Carolina manufacturing concern spent $100,000 in advertising, and the results were so satisfactory that it has increased its advertising fund for this year to $250,000." Advertising tells the story of prosperous business North and South. It was but a few days ago when a firm at Anniston, Ala., secured a contract for 30,000 tons of castiron pipe for Yokohama, Japan, the largest contract ever made by an American firm for foreign shipment. During the late business depression, the Atlanta Constitution says, the Southern cotton mills have all run on full time, without reducing wages, and their dividends have ranged from 15 to 60 per cent. and in one instance to 80. Twenty years ago the annual output of goods manufactured in Georgia was worth less than $11,000,000; ten years ago it was $40,000,000; today it is nearly $75,000,000. "The fact is the South is on the high road to prosperity and in time is to be an empire of strength when viewed from a business point of view.

NORFOLK'S ADVANCE.

Its New Steamship Lines to Europe—Southern Direct Trade.
Baltimore American, 27th.

It is a pleasure to make the announcement that three new steamship lines between this and foreign countries are soon to be established, to be operated in connection with railroads, or to take advantage of new railroad terminals at important Southern ports.
The Hamburg-American Steamship Company is to put on a monthly service early in October between Norfolk and Hamburg, which will receive the benefit of the extensive terminals to be established at Norfolk by the Southern Railway Company. The second line will run between Pensacola and Liverpool, as an adjunct of the Louisville and Nashville road, and the third will be the new line of the Panama railroad between New Orleans and Colon. All these projects are well under way, and there is money enough behind them to insure their successful establishment. They are evidence of new energy on the part of the South, and a determination to be no longer dependent on Northern ports for the carrying of their foreign exports and imports. Baltimore can send its congratulations to Norfolk, Pensacola and New Orleans, even while it regrets the fact that it will share only indirectly in the benefits that will be derived from these new steamship lines.

His Mother's Kiss.

It was her wont when, tired of play,
He to her bosom crept,
With golden hair in disarray,
To kiss him as he slept.
And still her plea would be but this:
"I shall not wake him with a kiss!"
So heavenly sweet his sleeping face—So beautiful and bright, I know the angels lift the lace To kiss my boy good night, For still he smiles in dreams of bliss, "How should I wake him with a kiss!" So did his mother say, and when God whispered his sweet will She only moaned, "He sleeps!" and then, Kneeling, she kissed him still And weeping, murmured only this:
"I cannot wake him with a kiss!"
—Frank L. Stanton in Atlanta Constitution.

Hood's Saved I Can Honestly Say This

"For years I was in a serious condition with catarrh of the stomach, bowels and bladder. I suffered intensely from dyspepsia, in fact was a miserable wreck,
merely a skeleton. I seemed to go from bad to worse. I really wished I was dead. I had taken so much medicine of the wrong kind that it had poisoned me, and my finger nails began to turn black and come off. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and it did more for me than all prescriptions. I have gradually regained perfect health, am entirely free from catarrh of the bowels, and pain in my back. My recovery is simply marvelous." W. R. Young, Potter's Mills Pa.
